

Synopsis of Satan and His Plan

John 10:10

The denial of Satan's reality usually takes the form of considering the idea of a Satan as the personification of evil but not actually a being who has his own separate existence.

Satan _____ to sin and reject the truth about God.

He is a created being. In Ezekiel 28:11-19

Satan had unparalleled _____ and _____ (v. 12).

Satan had an unparalleled _____ (v. 13).

Satan had an unparalleled _____ (v. 13).

Satan had an unparalleled _____ (v. 14).

Satan had an unparalleled _____ (v. 15).

We see how he initiated his plan in detail in the five "I will" phrases in Isaiah 14:13-14.

I will ascend to _____.

I will raise my _____ above the stars of God.

I will sit also upon the mount of the _____, in the sides of the north.

I will _____ above the heights of the clouds.

I will be like the most _____.

The whole goal of Satan's temptation of Christ was to _____ the suffering and death of the Cross.

In relation to unbelievers Satan _____ their minds so that they will not accept the Gospel. (2 Cor. 4:4).

In relation to believers, just like he tried the Lord, he _____ us. His aim is to get us to commit evil.

Satan's Plan

_____ – makes you question God's Word and his goodness (Gen. 3:1)

_____ – Makes you look at your problems rather than at God (Elijah - 1 Kings 18)

_____ – Makes the wrong things seem attractive so that you will want them more than the right things (Prov. 14:12)

_____ – Makes you feel like a failure so that you don't even try (Peter – John 21:3)

_____ – Makes you put off doing something that it never or takes a while to get done (Jonah)

What's the benefit of resisting Satan through submission to God?

- Ephesians 4:26 – It helps us not to act out of our emotions
- Ephesians 4:27 – It helps us not to be submissive to our flesh, the world, and Satan
- Ephesians 6:11 – It keeps us closer to God for protection
- 1 Peter 5:8 – It keeps us alert through our daily time with God in His word and prayer

- 1 Peter 5:9 – It helps us depend upon God through our faith because Satan attack us as well as the world

Just remember, “greater is _____ that is in you, than he that is in the world” (1 John 4:4).
